Dear Paul,

Thank you for your continued interest in my newsletter. I welcome suggestions for improvements and discussion topics. Please browse through the links in the right hand column. These links will connect you to a lot of very useful jewelry-related information.

Only a week to go until Christmas!

Hopefully, your shopping is complete and all you have left to do is wrap the gifts. If you need any last minute jewelry advice, please call or email. I would be happy to help you make an informed decision.

Happy Holidays from Connecticut Jewelry Appraisers

Cleaning out your parent's home? Are you at that stage of life when your parents are downsizing to a retirement home? If so, when cleaning out the house make sure you look for hidden jewelry and money. Seniors tend to put valuables in a "safe" place. I have heard stories of jewelry hidden in old clothes in the attic, in the lining of drapes and in a cookie jar in the kitchen, just to mention a few. Before you send things to Salvation Army or put them out in a yard sale, make sure you check them thoroughly.

Planning a trip or cruise?

If you are, make sure to click on the "Vacation/Buying Tips" in the column on the right. Hopefully, my suggestions will help make your vacation experience memorable for a good reason. Remember, if the deal looks too good to be true, it probably is!

Contest winner!

Winner of the "identify the material" contest in last month's newsletter is Catherine C who correctly identified the material as lava. Linda Z was correct but Catherine beat her to the prize.

Great job!
